

New Zealand Film: An Illustrated History

From art-house flicks to Oscar-winning epics, the obscure to the iconic, Broken Barrier to Braindead to Boy – it's all here.

NEW ZEALAND

FILM

AN ILLUSTRATED HISTORY

IN ASSOCIATION WITH THE FILM ARCHIVE

Diane Pivac with Frank Stark and Lawrence McDonald

Publication date: July 2011

NZ RRP (incl. GST): $84.99

Extent: 360 pages

Format: Hardback, 270 x 215mm

Illustrations: 400+ full-colour and black-and-white images

ISBN: 9781877385667

DVD included

Out of Print

The first comprehensive, illustrated, and locally authored New Zealand film history, celebrating over 100 years of our film industry.

Both entertaining and enlightening, this momentous publication is the first to tell the complete story of New Zealand film. From art-house flicks to Oscar-winning epics, the obscure to the iconic, Broken Barrier to Braindead to Boy – it's all here.

New Zealand Film is an essential reference tool for film buffs and students alike. It features contributions from 24 top film professionals and historians, and covers developments from the times of pioneer Rudall Hayward to Peter Jackson. It is lavishly illustrated with hundreds of images from the Film Archive and beyond, many of them never seen before, and includes a DVD of important films from our history.

New Zealand Film is proudly published in association with the New Zealand Film Archive Ngā Kaitiaki o ngā Taonga Whitiāhua.