

Auckland Meeting – November 1986

From the Programme

Date 7th 8th 9th November.

Friday night, members met at the Hollywood in time to board the bus at 6.30 pm for a visit to Eric James Movie Museum at Papakura. After supper, the bus brought them back to Avondale for a showing of the long running Rocky Horror Show at Jan's Hollywood cinema.

Saturday members met at the Westwind cinema and museum complex in Avondale where John Ryder and friends entertained at their superb theatre complex. A BBQ lunch followed with time allow for film swaps, equipment sales etc. This was followed by a visit to the Hollywood cinema for a Wurlitzer organ recital and silent film presentation.

The Saturday night dinner was held at the Inner Circle Tavern. After dinner, the bus departed for a visit to the Mid-City cinema complex in Queen Street which included seeing through the projection boxes. It was then over to the North Shore for a visit to George Knights "Beach Haven" followed by a visit to Dough Harleys at Glenfield. Supper was partaken on the North Shore.

Sunday morning members met at MOTAT, Western Springs Cinema museum for a conducted tour. After lunch, farewells took place.